Social Issues , 2021

Social justice is the foundation of the European Social market economy and is at the heart of our Union It underpins the idea that social fairness and prosperity are the cornerstones for building a resilient society with the highest standards of well being in the world All Europeans should have the same opportunities to thrive Many still struggle to make ends meet or face barriers due to inequalities Many children and young people often from disadvantaged socio economic backgrounds do not have access to quality education or healthcare There are still many elderly without access to care services Inequality is a brake on growth and threatens social cohesion To address these challenges the EU institutions jointly proclaimed the European Pillar of Social Rights in November 2017 The Pillar is about delivering new and more effective rights for citizens It builds upon 20 key principles structured around three categories equal opportunities and access to the labour market fair working conditions and social protection and inclusion Three years after the launch of the European Pillar of Social Rights it is relevant to explore Europeans attitudes towards social issues in the European Union as a whole also in the context of the announced action plan to further implement the Pillar This survey was commissioned by the Directorate General for Employment Social Affairs and Inclusion to explore public opinion about social issues in the European Union It covers the following topics The importance of a social Europe to Europeans personally The most important elements for the EU s economic and social development Assessment of a lack of social rights as a serious problem More or less decision making at European level regarding 15 key principles of the European Pillar of Social Rights Europeans awareness of the European Pillar of Social Rights Views on the impact of the European Pillar of Social Rights on employment and social inclusion in the

EU and on its chances of success Opinions about the possibility of a more social Europe in 2030 Key principles of the European Pillar of Social Rights which are the most important for the future of Europe On which of these principles should national governments and the European Union take action to prepare the future of Europe The role of social rights issues in building a stronger European Union in the future

The EU and social inclusion Marlier, Eric, Atkinson, Tony, 2009-04-21 Social cohesion is one of the declared objectives of the European Union and with some 16% of EU citizens at risk of poverty the need to fight poverty and social exclusion continues as a major challenge This book provides an in depth analysis of the EU Social Inclusion Process the means by which it hopes to meet this objective and explores the challenges ahead at local regional national and EU levels It sets out concrete proposals for taking the Process forward The book provides a unique analysis of policy formulation and assessment Setting out the evolution and current state of EU cooperation in social policy it examines what can be learned about poverty and social exclusion from the EU commonly agreed indicators Taking the position of outside but informed observers the authors explore the further development of the common indicators including the implications of Enlargement and consider the challenges of advancing the Social Inclusion Process strengthening policy analysis embedding the Process in domestic policies and making it more effective Proposing the setting of targets and restructuring of National Action Plans and their implementation they emphasise the need for widespread ownership of the Process at domestic and EU level and for it to demonstrate significant progress in reducing poverty and social exclusion The book will be invaluable to academics students and policy makers at sub national national and EU levels as well as to social partners and NGOs working towards a more inclusive society

Social Europe ,2014 This edition of the annual review of the social situation in the European Union EU delivers on the core Treaty task of the Social Protection Committee SPC to monitor the social situation in the Member States and the European Union art 160 of the Treaty on the Functioning of the European Union The SPC is an advisory policy Committee which provides representative forum for multilateral social policy coordination dialogue and cooperation at EU level It brings together policy makers from all EU Member States and the Commission in an effort to identify discuss and implement the policy mix that is most fitted to respond to the various challenges faced by social policies It uses the social open method of coordination as the main policy framework combining all major social policy strands social inclusion pensions health and long term care This year s report on the social situation shows worsening developments especially in some Member States The latest figures on living and income conditions in the EU show that the EU is not making any progress towards achieving its Europe 2020 poverty and social exclusion target of lifting at least 20 million people from poverty and social exclusion by 2020 There are 6 7 million more people living in poverty or social exclusion since 2008 a total of 124 2 million people for the EU28 or close to 1 in 4 Europeans in 2012 Poverty and social exclusion has increased in more than 13 of the Member States in both 2011 and 2012 EU Bookshop

Fighting Poverty and Social Exclusion in the EU Matteo Jessoula, Ilaria Madama, 2018-06-14 In the field of anti poverty policies the interplay between the Europe 2020 overarching strategy and the Semester have marked major discontinuity vis vis the Open Method of Coordination for social protection and social inclusion Social OMC of the Lisbon phase This book therefore asks whether and how Europe matters in the fight against poverty and social exclusion by assessing the emergence and possible institutionalisation of a European multi level multi stakeholder and integrated policy arena in the new institutional framework Supranational developments multi level interactions as well as the strategy effects at the national level are analysed in six European countries Belgium Germany Italy Poland UK and Sweden with the aim to identify the key factors affecting the implementation of the Europe 2020 anti poverty strategy This book will be of key interest to students scholars and practitioners in social policy political science and European governance and more broadly to European Union politics European integrations studies sociology and economics

A More Cohesive Society for a Stronger Europe European Commission. Directorate-General for Employment, Social Affairs and Equal Opportunities, 2007

A 'Social Turn' in the European Union? Jacek Kubera, Tomasz Morozowski, 2020 An important debate is under way in the European Union EU over what should be shared at community level and what should be left to individual nations Social Europe is a key topic in the construction of the EU and its institutions This volume examines the current state of and perspectives for Social Europe as well as key issues in European social policy including the posting of workers the impact of the free market and regulations on social convergence work automation digitalisation taxation and democracy in the workplace The aim of this volume is to identify a course to be followed in integrating the EU s social policies and point to areas in which co operation between member states is likely to produce best results The concept of social turn is used as a theoretical tool to describe and explain European policy in the field of social issues with social turn defined as a change in the way of thinking about Social Europe While a Social Europe was previously seen to be a natural consequence of political and economic integration it is now viewed as a separate area that requires active policies to preserve the European project The EU s big question today concerns the level at which this policy should be pursued the volume's contributors outline difficulties with harmonising social policies across the Union but they nevertheless argue that owing to the common challenges faced by Europe the idea of a Social Europe must not be abandoned and requires specific action The volume consists of 11 chapters that propose ways in which the idea of a Social Europe can be put into practice Chapter 1 outlines prospects for developing European social policy is this idea becoming obsolete as some argue The following six chapters discuss areas that require action at both the national and European levels such as democracy in the workplace work automation digitalisation and taxes Is it possible to work towards common goals across the EU while accounting for the different levels and contexts of its functioning The next three chapters are authored by representatives of the authorities of the Weimar Triangle states of France Germany and Poland and shed light on the views and arguments raised in the debate on the future of Social Europe The final chapter offers conclusions as well as a thesis whereby as a result of the social turn social policy can no longer be seen as derived from economic policy but rather as a separate driver of development that could be of interest to the northern southern and eastern states of the EU

Handbook of European Societies Stefan Immerfall, Göran Therborn, 2009-12-01 European integration is one of the most ambitious and socially far reaching developments in world politics and in world economics Against growing opposition and despite increasing social heterogeneity the European Union continues to expand and to acquire new competences But to what extent is the self proclaimed ever closer union among the peoples of Europe a social reality In which ways is the political European project anchored in social developments How does social change impinge upon political integration Societal trends in multi cultural multi ethnic multi lingual and socially diverse Europe have never been studied systematically Handbook of European Societies Social Transformations in the 21st Century sets to rectify this neglect of societal developments in Europe providing a groundwork for the sociology of European integration The book portrays social life and social relations in the enlarged Europe and gives a perspective on the European Union as an evolving social entity Handbook of European Societies is a pioneering source book analyzing the current social patterns on the continent It covers a representative selection of major topics of social concern and sociological relevance such as Collective Action Consumption Identity Power Structure Sexuality Stratification and Well being Each contribution probes key developments in a strictly comparative manner The Handbook thus offers a detailed look into the intricacies of the national societies of Europe and into the prospect of an emerging European society The Editors have enlisted leading researchers to synthesize existing knowledge and to make use of many different data sources in a straight forward style The contributions stay away from jargon simple labeling and sweeping assertions Instead they provide solid and accessible information on a wide variety of social trends and processes within and across European societies Access to Social Rights in Europe Mary E. Daly, European Committee for Social Cohesion, 2002-01-01 The Council of Europe is convinced of the need to improve access to social rights as a key means of combating poverty and social exclusion and in promoting social cohesion The report on access to social rights in Europe is mainly based on the results of the activities related to access to employment social protection and housing as well as relevant work carried out within the Council of Europe in the fields of health and education This report analyses the obstacles impeding access to different social rights within and across a range of fields It also gives examples of how obstacles are being overcome examines integrated measures implemented in the member states of the Council of Europe and identifies the principles on which measures to improve access to social rights should be based Finally the report develops cross sectoral policy guidelines aimed at facilitating access to social rights

Assessment of Progress Towards the Europe 2020 Social Inclusion Objectives, 2014 European Social Policy DIANE Publishing Company, Covers jobs the top priority investing in a world class labour force encouraging high labour standards as part of a competitive Europe building a European labour market equality of opportunity for women social policy action in the field of public health trade unions employers organizations international cooperation the role of European social policy towards a more effective application of European law

A More Social Europe, 2019 Since the start of its mandate the Juncker Commission has placed social priorities at the core of its work from the establishment of the European Pillar of Social Rights to mainstreaming social priorities in all policies We have made significant progress 12.6 million jobs have been created since the start of the Juncker Commission unemployment has reached its lowest level since the start of recordings in 2000 and with about 240 million people in employment the employment level has never been as high as today

Monitoring Social Inclusion in Europe Anthony B. Atkinson, Anne-Catherine Guio, Eric Marlier, 2017 The EU has not made any progress towards achieving its Europe 2020 social inclusion target adopted in 2010 of lifting at least 20 million people from poverty and social exclusion by 2020 This book aims to contribute to our understanding of some of the substantive challenges facing Social Europe and to the development of methods that can bring about new insights into issues related to income deprivation and work The data on individuals and their households contained in the EU Statistics on Income and Living Conditions EU SILC are used to contrast the experience of European countries drawing out lessons of potential value to all The strengths and weaknesses of cross sectional and longitudinal EU SILC data are also examined and recommendations for their further improvement are made in relation to both data production and data analysis Therefore this volume is intended not only for policy makers and statisticians but also for all those concerned about the impact of economic employment and social policies on people's lives and about the ways in which the social dimension of Europe including the monitoring of the EU social inclusion target could be strengthened

Employment and Social Developments in Europe 2021, 2021 The COVID 19 outbreak put Europe as well as the rest of the world under exceptional public health economic and social stress In addition to the high death toll in 2020 economic activity suffered an exceptional slump and the state of the EU labour market deteriorated These adverse developments are reflected in all main economic and social indicators including for young people who are among the most affected by the crisis The EU and its Member States have been mobilising a wide range of measures to tackle and mitigate the impact of the crisis At the EU level this included the flexibilisation of state aid with the adoption of the State Aid Temporary Framework in March 2020 and fiscal rules to enable national governments to financially support healthcare systems businesses and keep people in employment during the crisis The measures also include a more flexible use for the EU Cohesion Funds and an innovative instrument to underpin temporary Support to mitigate Unemployment Risks in an Emergency SURE The major European Recovery Plan comprising up to EUR 1 8 trillion involves the creation of a new recovery instrument Next Generation EU which is embedded in a modern and revamped long term EU budget At the same time the European Commission with the adoption of EASE Recommendation on Effective Active Support to Employment following the COVID 19 crisis outlined a strategic approach to gradually transition from emergency measures taken to preserve jobs during the pandemic to new measures needed for a job rich recovery promoting job creation and job to job transitions including towards the digital and green sectors Social Experimentation in Europe Marjorie Jouen,2008
