Europe Old and New Ray Taras, 2009 Is Europe indeed uniting or instead falling apart as a result of anti immigrant prejudices a massive Islamic influx and ancient intra European hatreds This innovative and engaging book explores the sources of Europe s culture based divide arguing that the idea of two Europes is grounded both in reality and myth The accession process that brought a dozen new members into the European Union after 2004 has highlighted the persisting gulf between old and new Europe despite the many physical barriers that have crumbled Ray Taras examines the treaties political rhetoric citizen attitudes and literary narratives of belonging and separation that both bind and fray the fabric of Europe Throughout this interdisciplinary work provides a comprehensive hard hitting and unabashed review of how enlarged Europe embraces contrasting understandings of its political home Xenophobia and Islamophobia in Europe Raymond Taras, 2012-06-30 This cross national analysis of Islamophobia looks at these questions in an innovative even handed way steering clear of politically correct cliches and stereotypes It cautions that Islamophobia is a serious threat to European values and norms and mus Migrants and Minorities Adam Luedtke, 2020-05-22 Europe stands on the brink of a new era of diversity and immigration Although many Europeans would prefer to ignore this fact the signs are everywhere Societies and politics are being irrevocably changed by their encounters with migrants both recent and settled This book pinpoints the specific trends and emerging patterns that allow us to understand what these changes mean for the future of Europe On the ground level institutions like schools and local governments have charted unique courses for dealing with diversity And from above the institutions of Brussels become ever more important for regulating the big picture The passage of the Lisbon Treaty means that common EU rules on immigration will now be easier to achieve and more likely But what exact role is played by the institutions of the EU in Brussels and how does this vary across policy areas How are Europeans on all levels dealing with the sensitive questions raised by Islam and how are migrants and minorities dealing with the hostility and xenophobia they routinely encounter And finally how have the experiences of different European countries in integrating their immigrants and minorities changed our comparative understanding of race ethnicity and citizenship These three sets of issues EU level regulations Islam and Xenophobia and comparative integration policy are the topics that motivate and structure this book Noted experts on each topic offer the latest research findings which collectively advance our understanding of how Europe will deal with diversity in the 21st Century The Writers Directory ,2013 Education, Asylum and the 'Non-Citizen' Child Halleli Pinson, Madeleine Arnot, Mano Candappa, 2010-04-29 Refugees are physically and symbolically out of place their position forcing receiving states to address issues of rights and moral obligations This book is concerned with asylum seeking and refugee children in the UK whose presence represents a litmus test of state commitment to human rights equality and justice for all children Chinatown and Transnationalism Gregor Benton, Edmund Terence Gomez, 2001 Environment & Planning ,2010 Sociological Abstracts ,2004 CSA
