European Human Rights Law Text And Materials:

European Human Rights Law Mark W. Janis, Richard S. Kay, Anthony Wilfred Bradley, 2008 The third edition of European Human Rights Law Text and Materials has been substantially expanded to provide a complete review of the wide range of rights the Convention protects with new chapters on the right to life property discrimination religious freedom and education The book introduces both the process and the substance of this increasingly important area of European law A broad selection of extracts from essential cases and materials is accompanied by stimulating commentary that guides the reader through the legal rules and court system that have evolved in Strasbourg how the court works and how European human rights law is enforced both at the national and international level European human rights law is also placed into a useful comparative framework alongside human rights cases decided by courts in the United States Canada and elsewhere This third edition has been extensively updated to cover the major developments of recent years including the reform of the European Court of Human Rights and the expansion of the system to central and eastern Europe

European Human Rights Law Mark W. Janis, Richard S. Kay, Anthony Wilfred Bradley, 1995 Thoroughly revised updated and expanded Covers the widening of the Strasbourg system to include the newly democratic states of Central and Eastern Europe This new edition of a popular text and materials book offers an in depth comparative study of the European Convention on Human Rights a system which has attained tremendous significance both in the domestic jurisdiction of European states particularly in the UK and is the standard by which other regional human rights instruments are judged

The EU Charter of Fundamental Rights Steve Peers, Tamara Hervey, Jeff Kenner, Angela Ward, 2021-11-18 this most thorough commentary must be regarded as the Bible on the Charter Peter Oliver Common Market Law Review This second edition of the first commentary of the EU Charter of Fundamental Rights in English written by experts from several EU Member States provides an authoritative but succinct statement of how the Charter impacts upon EU domestic and international law Following the conventional article by article approach each commentator offers an expert view of how each article is either already being interpreted in the courts or is likely to be interpreted Each commentary is referenced to the case law and is augmented with extensive references to further reading This is a much welcomed new edition of the authoritative guide to the Charter

Introduction to International Criminal Law M. Cherif Bassiouni, 2013 This title covers the history nature and sources of international criminal law the ratione personae ratione materiae sources of substantive international criminal law the indirect enforcement system the direct enforcement system and much more

Applications of the 'Fair Hearing' Norm in ECHR Article 6(1) to Civil Proceedings Ola Johan Settem, 2015-12-15 This book focuses on the most important implications of the fair hearing right for conducting civil proceedings It provides a thorough and critical analysis of the case law of the European Court of Human Rights the Strasbourg Court regarding Article 6 of the European Convention on Human Rights It puts forward a generally applicable framework for the analysis of the various procedural issues to which the fair hearing right may give rise then applies that framework to discuss a selection of specific procedural issues The book investigates several important questions of general scope in the context of ECHR Article 6 such as What is the relevance of case law regarding criminal proceedings when the fair hearing right is applied to civil proceedings How does the Strasbourg Court actually proceed when evaluating whether specific court proceedings have been fair What are the roles of fundamental concepts such as the margin of appreciation and proportionality in this regard In the subsequent discussion of specific procedural issues the focus is on the balance that must be struck between procedural safeguards and the objectives of efficiency and economy The book considers specific procedural issues such as When must an oral hearing be held in order for civil proceedings to be fair When will a refusal of specific evidence render civil proceedings unfair When is a civil litigant entitled to legal aid As such the book not only presents current case law it also compares various strands of the case law regarding the fair hearing right and argues that the Strasbourg Court's approach to various pertinent issues needs to become more consistent Offering an in depth examination of the Strasbourg Court's case law regarding ECHR Article 6 this book should be consulted by anyone interested in fundamental fair trial rights

European Human Rights Law Mark Weston Janis, Richard S. Kay, Anthony Wilfred Bradley, Aileen MacColgan, 2013

European and US Constitutionalism Georg Nolte, 2005-09-29 This book asks whether and how far constitutional theory and judicial practice differ between Europe and the United States This question is explored with respect to the areas of freedom of speech human dignity duty of the state to protect individuals from harm adjudication by constitutional and other courts and finally democratic theory and international influences The authors of this book are constitutional scholars from Europe and the United States as well as from other constitutional states such as Canada Israel Japan Peru and South Africa

The Criminalization of European Cartel Enforcement Peter Whelan, 2014-08-07 Cartel activity is prohibited under EU law by virtue of Article 101 1 of the Treaty on the Functioning of the European Union Firms that violate this provision face severe punishment from those entities responsible for enforcing EU competition law the European Commission the national competition authorities and the national courts Stiff fines are regularly imposed on firms by these entities such firm focused punishment is an established feature of the antitrust enforcement landscape within the EU In recent years however focus has also been placed on the individuals within the firms responsible for the cartel activity It is increasingly recognized that punishment for cartel activity should be individual focused as well as firm focused Accordingly a growing tendency to criminalize cartel activity can be observed in the EU Member States The existence of such criminal sanctions within the EU presents a number of crucial challenges that need to be met if the underlying enforcement objectives are to be achieved in practice without violating prevailing legal norms For a start given the severe consequences of a custodial sentence the employment of criminal antitrust punishment must be justifiable in principle one must have a robust normative framework rationalizing the existence of criminal cartel sanctions Second for it to be legitimate antitrust criminalization should only occur in a manner that respects the mandatory legalities applicable to the European jurisdiction in question These include the due process rights of the accused and the principle of legal certainty Finally the correct practical measures such as a criminal leniency policy and a correctly defined criminal cartel offence need to be in place in order to ensure that the employment of criminal antitrust punishment actually achieves its aims while maintaining its legitimacy These three particular challenges can be conceptualized respectively as the theoretical legal and practical challenges of European antitrust criminalization This book analyses these three crucial challenges so that the complexity of the process of European antitrust criminalization can be understood more accurately In doing so this book acknowledges that the three challenges should not be considered in isolation In fact there is a dynamic relationship between the theoretical legal and practical challenges of European antitrust criminalization and an effective antitrust criminalization policy is one which recognizes and respects this complex interaction

Textbook on International Human Rights Rhona K. M. Smith, 2010 Christmas and the Sanford Third Age Club are living it up at the Regency Hotel But on a snowy Christmas morning there s murder afoot and it s up to Joe Sheila and Brenda to find the killer There are so many questions to answer How much hatred flows round the hotel what game is Jennifer playing what is the meaning of the cryptic pictogram found near the victim how does a long lost penny fit into it all and how many times will Joe have to search the hotel dustbins For the Yorkshire sleuths it s a taxing mystery marinated in a yuletide party atmosphere

Transparency and Proportionality in the Schengen Information System and Border Control Co-Operation Stephen Kabera Karanja, 2008 This volume offers an evaluation of the Schengen Information System and border control co operation from a transparency and proportionality perspective It also incorporates a legal descriptive analysis of the co operation in order to accommodate the changes and developments that occurred during the writing period The transparency and proportionality perspectives are developed from human rights and data protection criteria Transparency is understood as knowledge and accessibility to legal information as well as openness and accountability On the other hand proportionality is a requirement for guidance balance and justification as well as a need to avoid excessiveness and arbitrariness in border control work The final findings reveal that the Schengen co operation suffers from a deficiency of transparency and proportionality Consequently measures are proposed to augment the deficiency Even as this study was reaching its conclusion fundamental legislative changes closely similar to some of the arguments and recommendations projected in this study took place The efficacy of these changes is yet to be discerned

Blackstone's Guide to the Human Rights Act 1998 John Wadham, Helen Mountfield, 1999 The Human Rights Act 1998 and the incorporation of the European Convention on Human Rights should have a significant impact in the constitutional balance between the citizen and the state The Act ensures that the rights in the Convention are binding on all public bodies or those that exercise public functions

A Guide to Human Rights Law in Scotland Lord Robert John Reed, J. L. Murdoch, 2001 This guide provides guidance to the Scottish practitioner It explores the likely impact of human rights legislation in Scotland and explains the enforcement machinery of the ECHR as well as concepts such as victim and just satisfaction will be used by domestic courts Reader's Guide to the Social Sciences Jonathan Michie, 2014-02-03 This 2 volume work includes approximately 1 200 entries in A Z order critically reviewing the literature on specific topics from abortion to world systems theory In addition nine major entries cover each of the major disciplines political economy management and business human geography politics sociology law psychology organizational behavior and the history and development of the social sciences in a broader sense Arbitration and Human Rights Aleksandar Jaksic, 2002 The concept of delocalised arbitration tends to evade any active judicial control over arbitral awards at the place of arbitration The judicial control over arbitral awards is nowadays reduced to the extent of their conformity with transnational public policy That is the reason why the losing party to the arbitral proceedings tries to invoke the procedural human rights as a minimum protective standard under international human rights law This study sheds light on the question as to whether international human rights law is to be applied to the international commercial arbitration Moreover it specifies some serious violations of procedural human rights occurring in the arbitral process and determines the responsibility of states for tolerating such violations which take place within their jurisdiction The Human Rights of Companies Marius Emberland, 2006 This book studies the response of the European Court of Human Rights the international court that supervises governmental compliance with the European Convention on Human Rights ECHR to complaints submitted to it by companies and their shareholders The protection of business vis vis governmental regulation is hardly the main concern of international human rights law yet it is not disputed that companies and their owners in principle enjoy protection under the ECHR Such complaints are not unproblematic for the Court in Strasbourg however This book analyses the Court s reasoning in three groups of cases in which they have presented difficult issues of treaty interpretation As the case law is streamlined in a minimalist fashion which obscures the Court s rationale the book construes the structural framework within which the Court operates and explains how the relevant case law is largely coherent when considered against the general structure of ECHR protection This book is the first major study of the protection of business enterprise under the European Convention on Human Rights and thus an invaluable guide to understanding how the Court in Strasbourg responds to corporate complaints More importantly by focusing on a field of European human rights law that is regarded by many as marginal and even objectionable the book reveals the fundamental structures of European human rights protection where the protection of economic activity and corporate life is regarded as inseparable from core values of the ECHR such as an effective political democracy and the rule of law The Pursuit of International Criminal Justice M. Cherif Bassiouni, 2010 This publication includes a survey of world conflicts that occurred between 1945 and 2008 the level of victimization they produced and the subsequent post conflict justice PCJ mechanisms which were applied It is intended to show the scope of the problem faced by international criminal justice ICJ and how the International Criminal Court ICC needs to shape its mission and approach to address ICJ needs and expectations From publisher s description The Shifting Allocation of Authority in

International Law Tomer Broude, Yuval Shany, 2008-07 Essays in honour of Professor Ruth Lapidoth T p Constitutional and Administrative Law Alex Carroll, 1998 This textbook completes the Foundations in Law Series which covers the core subjects of the CPE Written in an accessible style it follows the CPE guidelines for constitutional and administrative law and the contemporary trend for increased European emphasis both with respect to the EU and the European Convention on Human Rights Business and the Human Rights Act 1998 Michael Smyth, 2000 Following implementation of the 1998 Act companies as well as individuals could have direct access to the rights contained in the European Convention on Human Rights This will give business a powerful new weapon in challenging the actions of government and other public authorities and bodies International Justice Kalliopi Koufa, 1997
