This discerning book provides a thorough analysis and offers a unique perspective on the future of fundamental rights protection in Europe. With engaging contributions from both scholars and practitioners, the chapters consider not only the role of judicial actors but also the increasing relevance of non-judicial bodies including agencies, national human rights institutions, the Venice Commission, and equality bodies. The contributors cover the different features and implications of judicial and non-judicial bodies at national, supranational, and institutional level, paying close attention to their interaction and the ways in which each have a role to play in a comprehensive fundamental rights policy. Particular attention is paid to both the individual dimension of rights protection and the systemic dimension of rights monitoring and advisory, which have been largely overlooked in previous studies. Taking account of both theory and practice, this book will be a valuable resource to legal scholars in the fields of human rights protection, constitutional law, and EU law. Members of national and supranational human rights organizations will also find this a valuable tool in discovering more about the legal foundations of their work Contributors include M Avbelj A Baraggia F Fabbrini M E Gennusa S Granata S Imamovic K Meuwissen S Menghini S Ninatti O Pollicino C Rauchegger L P Vanoni L Violini European and US Constitutionalism Georg Nolte, 2005 This book asks whether and how far constitutional theory and judicial practice differ between Europe and the United States The areas explored are freedom of speech human dignity duty of the state to protect individuals from harm adjudication by constitutional and other courts and democratic theory and international influences HMSO Agency Catalogue Great Britain.
