Irini Stamatoudi, Paul Torremans, 2021-03-26 This significantly revised and updated second edition addresses the rapid development of EU copyright law in relation to the advancement of new technologies the need for a borderless digital market and the considerable number of EU legal instruments enacted as a result Taking a comparative approach the Commentary provides comprehensive coverage and in depth commentary on each of the EU legal instruments and policies both from an EU and an international perspective Alongside full legislative analysis and article by article commentary the Commentary illustrates the underlying basic principles of free movement and non discrimination and provides insights into the influence of copyright on other areas of EU policy including telecoms and bilateral trade agreements The Regulation of International Trade, Volume 3 Petros C. Mavroidis, 2020-11-24 A comprehensive analysis of GATS that considers its historical context the national preferences that shaped it and a path to a GATS 2.0 The previous two volumes in The Regulation of International Trade analyzed the General Agreement on Tariffs and Trade GATT the first successful agreement to generate multilateral trade liberalization and the World Trade Organization WTO for which the GATT laid the groundwork In this third volume Petros Mavroidis turns to the General Agreement on Trade in Services GATS a WTO treaty that took effect in 1995 and offers a comprehensive analysis that considers the historical context of the GATS the national preferences that shaped it and a path to a GATS 2.0 Mavroidis examines the GATS through its negotiating record considering whether the GATS as it is can appropriately address the concerns of the world trading community The GATS deals exclusively with non tariff barriers NTBs precisely the instrument that the WTO has not managed to tame and one of some significance in light of the digital revolution which has enlarged the scope of cross border transactions in which neither supplier nor consumer needs to travel for a service to be consumed Mavroidis argues that the GATS has brought about a platform to liberalize services and has locked in some pre GATS liberalization What is missing he contends is a GATS Think that would generate liberalization from now on

New Technologies and Human Rights Mr Mario Viola de Azevedo Cunha,2013-10-28 Whilst advances in biotechnology and information technology have undoubtedly resulted in better quality of life for mankind they can also bring about global problems The legal response to the challenges caused by the rapid progress of technological change has been slow and the question of how international human rights should be protected and promoted with respect to science and technology remains unexplored The contributors to this book explore the political discourse and power relations of technological growth and human rights issues between the Global South and the Global North and uncover the different perspectives of both regions They investigate the conflict between technology and human rights and the perpetuation of inequality and subjection of the South to the North With emerging economies such as Brazil playing a major role in trade investment and financial law the book examines how human rights are affected in Southern countries and identifies significant challenges to reform in the areas of international law and policy Handbook on European Competition Law Ioannis Lianos,Damien

Geradin,2013-10-31 This Handbook will be an indispensable reference work for practitioners and scholars as well as for those in an enforcement environment The Evolution of European Competition Law ,2006 EU Competition Law
