famous church history are presented here complete in a superb and authoritative translation Eusebius Ecclesiastical History is one of the first comprehensive chronologically arranged histories ever written about the Christian church and it is consulted by scholars and historians to this day Eusebius authored his history as the Roman Empire's influence upon the European continent waned amid insurgencies and surrender of Roman lands to other peoples This also a time in which Christianity's influence upon Europe's peoples burgeoned and grew As one of a very few learned and scholarly Christians of his era Eusebius enjoyed a rare privilege access to the document archives of the early Christian church Much of these archives have since been lost Eusebius use of these long lost texts is the only window which readers of today have to such records Thus a sense of mystery is present as events for which scant evidence still exists are told Despite his being suspected as an Arian heretic by figures within the church of his time Eusebius was highly scrupulous when collecting and making use of his sources The information was collated and arranged in such a way that the author was beyond reproach However later historians have noted that certain biases and omissions may have been included given Eusebius own opinions and tentative position within the church schema Beginning with the familiar story of Jesus Christ and the Gospels this complex and ambitious text attempts to organize and outline the history of the Christian teachers the means by which bishops succeeded one another the outbreak and suppression of various heresies the history of the Jewish people and the numerous martyrs who emerged and left their mark during the first three centuries of Christianity At the time Eusebius authored his history in the 4th Century AD Christianity had in the space of a few centuries risen to become one of the most influential religions ever seen The Roman oppression of Christians and the eventual conversion of the Roman Empire to the Christian creed as initiated by Emperor Constantine and the organization of the church itself are fascinating reading The Ecclesiastical History of Eusebius Pamphilus, Bishop of Caesarea, in Palestine Eusebius, 2018-10-11 This work has been selected by scholars as being culturally important and is part of the knowledge base of civilization as we know it This work is in the public domain in the United States of America and possibly other nations Within the United States you may freely copy and distribute this work as no entity individual or corporate has a copyright on the body of the work Scholars believe and we concur that this work is important enough to be preserved reproduced and made generally available to the public To ensure a quality reading experience this work has been proofread and republished using a format that seamlessly blends the original graphical elements with text in an easy to read typeface We appreciate your support of the preservation process and thank you for being an important part of keeping this knowledge alive and relevant Ecclesiastical History Eusebius of Caesarea, 2018-04-30 The result was the first full length historical narrative written from a Christian point of view In the early 5th century two advocates in Constantinople Socrates Scholasticus and Sozomen and a bishop Theodoret of Cyrrhus Syria wrote continuations of Eusebius church history establishing the convention of continuators that would determine to a great extent the way history was written for the next thousand years Eusebius Chronicle which attempted to lay out a comparative timeline of pagan and Old Testament history set the model for the other historiographical genre the medieval chronicle or universal history Eusebius had access to the Theological Library of Caesarea and made use of many ecclesiastical monuments and documents acts of the martyrs letters extracts from earlier Christian writings lists of bishops and similar sources often quoting the originals at great length so that his work contains materials not elsewhere preserved For example he wrote that Matthew composed the Gospel according to the Hebrews and his Church Catalogue suggests that it was the only Jewish gospel It is therefore of historical value though it pretends neither to completeness nor to the observance of due proportion in the treatment of the subject matter Nor does it present in a connected and systematic way the history of the early Christian Church It is to no small extent a vindication of the Christian religion though the author did not primarily intend it as such Eusebius has been often accused of intentional falsification of the truth in judging persons or facts he is not entirely unbiased

Eusebiana Hugh Jackson Lawlor, 1912 The Ecclesiastical History Eusebius (of Caesarea, Bishop of Caesarea), 1965 The History of the Church Eusebius, 2021-01-24 The Church History of Eusebius bishop of Caesarea was a 4th century pioneer work giving a chronological account of the development of Early Christianity from the 1st century to the 4th century Eusebius had access to the Theological Library of Caesarea and made use of many ecclesiastical monuments and documents acts of the martyrs letters extracts from earlier Christian writings lists of bishops and similar sources often quoting the originals at great length so that his work contains materials not elsewhere preserved The History of the Church From Christ to Constantine is the first full length historical narrative written from a Christian point of view Eusebius established the convention that would determine to a great extent the way history was written for the next thousand years The time scheme of the narrative correlated the history with the reigns of the Roman Emperors and the scope was broad Included were the bishops and other teachers of the Church Christian relations with the Jews and those deemed heretical and the Christian martyrs through 324 AD This case laminate collector's edition includes a Victorian inspired dust jacket The Media Revolution of Early Christianity Doron Mendels, 1999 Respected historian Doron Mendels poses a daring new theory that Eusebius's monumental Ecclesiastical History 325 C E was meant to serve as a publicity tool to further the cause of early Christianity Reading The Ecclesiastical History through the lenses of modern media studies Mendels argues that Eusebius viewed the spread of Christianity as a media revolution and invented a new type of history writing media history to promote it By carefully examining Eusebius's methods Mendels shows that Eusebius worked much like modern journalists do in selecting shaping and presenting stories for popular consumption
