Europe's Encounter With Islam The Secular And The Postsecular Interventions:

Europe's Encounter with Islam Luca Mavelli, 2013-03-01 In the last few years the Muslim presence in Europe has been increasingly perceived as problematic Events such as the French ban on headscarves in public schools the publication of the so called Danish cartoons and the speech of Pope Benedict XVI at the University of Regensburg have hit the front pages of newspapers the world over and prompted a number of scholarly debates on Muslims capacity to comply with the seemingly neutral and pluralistic rules of European secularity Luca Mavelli argues that this perspective has prevented an in depth reflection on the limits of Europe s secular tradition and its role in Europe s conflictual encounter with Islam Through an original reading of Michel Foucault s spiritual notion of knowledge and an engagement with key thinkers from Thomas Aquinas to Jurg n Habermas Mavelli articulates a contending genealogy of European secularity While not denying the latter s achievements in terms of pluralism and autonomy he suggests that Europe s secular tradition has also contributed to forms of isolation which translate into Europe s incapacity to perceive its encounter with Islam as an opportunity rather than a threat Drawing on this theoretical perspective Mavelli offers a contending account of some of the most important recent controversies surrounding Islam in Europe and investigates the postsecular as a normative model to engage with the tensions at the heart of European secularity Finally he advances the possibility of a Europe willing to reconsider its established secular narratives which may identify in the encounter with Islam an opportunity to flourish and cultivate its democratic qualities and postnational commitments This work will be of great interest to students and scholars of religion and international relations social and political theory and Islam in Europe

International Intervention in a Secular Age

Audra Mitchell, 2014-04-03 International intervention is not just about saving human lives it is also an attempt to secure humanity s place in the universe This book explores the Western secular beliefs that underpin contemporary practices of intervention most importantly beliefs about life death and the dominance of humanity These beliefs shape a wide range of practices the idea that human beings should intervene when human lives are at stake analyses of violence and harm practices of intervention and peace building and logics of killing and letting die Ironically however the Western secular desire to ensure the meaningfulness of human life at all costs contributes to processes of dehumanization undercutting the basic goals of intervention To explore this paradox International Intervention in a Secular Age engages with examples from around the world and draws on interdisciplinary sources anthropologies of secularity and IR posthumanist political philosophy ontology and the sociology of death This book offers new insight into perennial problems such as the reluctance of intervenors to incur fatalities and international inaction in the face of escalating violence It also exposes new dilemmas such as the dehumanizing effects of quantifying casualties Western secular logics of killing and the appropriation of lives and deaths through peace building processes It will be of great interest to students and scholars of international relations political philosophy international ethics and social anthropology

War, Police and Assemblages of Intervention Jan Bachmann, Colleen

Bell, Caroline Holmqvist, 2014-11-13 This book reflects on the way in which war and police policing intersect in contemporary Western led interventions in the global South The volume combines empirically oriented work with ground breaking theoretical insights and aims to collect for the first time thoughts on how war and policing converge amalgamate diffuse and dissolve in the context both of actual international intervention and in understandings thereof The book uses the caption WAR POLICE to highlight the distinctiveness of this volume in presenting a variety of approaches that share a concern for the assemblage of war police as a whole The volume thus serves to bring together critical perspectives on liberal interventionism where the logics of war and police policing blur and bleed into a complex assemblage of WAR POLICE Contributions to this volume offer an understanding of police as a technique of ordering and collectively take issue with accounts of the character of contemporary war that argue that war is simply reduced to policing In contrast the contributions show how both historically and conceptually the two are always already connected Contributions to this volume come from a variety of disciplines including international relations war studies geography anthropology and law but share a critical poststructuralist approach to the study of international intervention war and policing This volume will be useful to students and scholars who have an interest in social theories on intervention war security and the making of international order

The Global Politics of Interreligious Dialogue Michael Daniel Driessen, 2023 In The Global Politics of Interreligious Dialogue Michael D Driessen examines the growth of state sponsored interreligious dialogue initiatives in the Middle East and their use as a policy instrument for engaging with religious communities and ideas Using a novel theoretical framework and drawing on five years of ethnographic fieldwork Driessen explores both the history of interreligious dialogue and the evolution of theological approaches to religious pluralism in the traditions of Catholicism and Sunni Islam Compelling and nuanced this book illustrates how religion operates in contemporary global politics offering important lessons about the development of alternative models of democracy citizenship and modernity Confronting Secularism in Europe and India

Brian Black, Gavin Hyman, Graham M. Smith, 2014-06-19 Can secularism continue to provide a foundation for political legitimacy It is often claimed that one of the cultural achievements of the West has been its establishment of secular democracy wherein religious belief is respected but confined to the sphere of private belief In more recent times however political secularism has been increasingly called into question Religious believers in numerous traditions have protested against the distortion and confinement that secularism imposes on their faith Others have become uneasily aware of the way in which secularism no longer commands universal assent in the way it once did Confronting Secularism in Europe and India adds to this debate by staging a creative encounter between European and Indian conceptions of secularism with a view to continuing new and distinctive trajectories of thought about the place and role of secularism in contemporary times Looking at political secularism the relationship between secularism and religion and religious and secular violence this book considers whether there are viable alternatives to secularism in Europe and in India Reasoning with God Khaled Abou

El Fadl,2014-10-23 In light of recent concern over Shari ah such as proposed laws to prohibit it in the United States and conflict over the role it should play in the new Egyptian constitution many people are confused about the meaning of Shari ah in Islam and its role in the world today In Reasoning with God renowned Islamic scholar Khaled Abou El Fadl explains not only what Shari ah really means but also the way it can revitalize and reengage contemporary Islam After a prologue that provides an essential overview of Shari ah Abou El Fadl explores the moral trajectory of Islam in today s world Weaving powerful personal stories with broader global examples he shows the ways that some interpretations of Islam today have undermined its potential in peace and love Rather than simply outlining challenges however the author provides constructive suggestions about how Muslims can reengage the ethical tradition of their faith through Shari ah As the world s second largest religion Islam remains an important force on the global stage Reasoning with God takes readers both Muslim and non Muslim beyond superficial understandings of Shari ah to a deeper understanding of its meaning and potential Archives

Secularity Nilüfer Göle,2015-10-23 In Islam and Secularity Nil fer G le takes on two pressing issues the transforming relationship between Islam and Western secular modernity and the impact of the Muslim presence in Europe G le shows how the visibility of Islamic practice in the European public sphere unsettles narratives of Western secularism As mutually constitutive Islam and secularism permeate each other the effects of which play out in embodied and aesthetic practices and are accompanied by fear anxiety and violence In this timely book G le illuminates the recent rethinking of secularism and religion of modernity and resistance to it of the public significance of sexuality and of the shifting terrain of identity in contemporary Europe Islam in a Post-Secular Society Dustin Byrd,2017-04-11 Islam in the Post Secular Society Religion Secularity and the Antagonism of Recalcitrant Faith critically examines the unique challenges facing Muslims in Europe and North America From the philosophical perspective of the Frankfurt School s Critical Theory this book attempts not only to diagnose the current problems stemming from a marginalization of Islam in the secular West but also to offer a proposal for a

Habermasian discourse between the religious and the secular By highlighting historical examples of Islamic and western rapprochement and rejecting the clash of civilization thesis the author attempts to find a common language between the religious and the secular which can serve as a vehicle for a future reconciliation Secular Power Europe and Islam Sarah Wolff, 2021-06-08 Secular Power Europe and Islam argues that secularism is not the central principle of international relations but should be considered as one belief system that influences international politics Through an exploration of Europe's secular identity an identity that is seen erroneously as normative author Sarah Wolff shows how Islam confronts the EU's existential anxieties about its security and its secular identity Islam disrupts Eurocentric assumptions about democracy and revolution and human rights Through three case studies Wolff encourages the reader to unpack secularism as a bedrock principle of IR and diplomacy This book argues that the EU's interest and diplomacy activities in relation to religion and to Islam specifically is shaped by the insistence on a European secular identity which should be reconsidered in areas of religion and foreign policy The Secular and the Postsecular Luca Mavelli, 2009 This thesis explores the modes of subjectivation and the forms of power encompassed by the epistemic category of the secular with specific reference to recent controversies over Islam in Europe The inquiry moves from the observation that contemporary reflections on postsecularity conceived as a normative ideal of inclusion of religious sensibilities in secular societies tend not to be grounded in an exploration of the constitution of the moral subject under conditions of secularity Accordingly the key questions driving this thesis are How does the secular episteme as a power knowledge formation based on the separation between knowledge and faith affect the process of constitution of the secular subject with specific reference to his/her practices of solidarity and exclusion And how is it possible to conceive the postsecular Drawing on Michel Foucault and engaging with the work of scholars such as Talal Asad Jos Casanova Thomas Aquinas Ren Descartes Immanuel Kant mile Durkheim Max Weber Charles Taylor Roberto Esposito Jürgen Habermas Pope Benedict XVI William Connolly and Martin Buber I suggest that the process of secular subjectivation is characterised by a triple process of withdrawal from the empirical other from the senses and from the transcendent Other God that confines the self in an iron cage of subjectivity and accounts for an immunitary reaction towards those perceived to be other This framework is employed to read some recent controversies over Islam in Europe including the French controversy over the headscarf the publication of the so called Danish cartoons and the speech of Pope Benedict XVI at the University of Regensburg Drawing on this analysis the thesis concludes by laying down the foundations of a post immunitary model of postsecularity that through the recovery of the subject's embodied dimension and the reappropriation of the transcendent Other God as a common medium of identification between self and other may help directing the always imperfect knowledge of the other into an act of love and pluralism's disconcerting flow of becoming into possibilities of life yet to come The Oxford Handbook of European Islam Jocelyne Cesari, 2015 For centuries Muslim countries and Europe have engaged one another through theological dialogues diplomatic missions political rivalries and power struggles In the last thirty years due in large part to globalization and migration from Islamic countries to the West what was previously an engagement across national and cultural boundaries has increasingly become an internalized encounter within Europe itself Questions of the Hijab in schools freedom of expression in the wake of the Danish Cartoon crisis and the role of Shari'a have come to the forefront of contemporary European discourse The Oxford Handbook of European Islam is the first collection to present a comprehensive approach to the multiple and changing ways Islam has been studied across European countries Parts one to three address the state of knowledge of Islam and Muslims within a selection of European countries while presenting a critical view of the most up to date data specific to each country These chapters analyze the immigration cycles and policies related to the presence of Muslims tackling issues such as discrimination post colonial identity adaptation and assimilation The thematic chapters in parts four and five examine secularism radicalization Shari'a Hijab and Islamophobia with the goal of synthesizing different national discussion into a more comparative theoretical framework The Handbook attempts to balance cutting edge assessment with the knowledge that the content itself will eventually be superseded by events Featuring eighteen newly commissioned essays by noted scholars in the field this volume will provide an excellent resource for students and scholars interested in European Studies immigration Islamic studies and the sociology of religion

European Muslims and the Secular State Sean McLoughlin, Jocelyne Cesari, 2016-12-05 The institutionalization of Islam in the West continues to raise many questions for a range of different constituencies Secularization represents much more than the legal separation of politics and religion in Europe for important segments of European societies it has become the cultural norm Therefore Muslims settlement and their claims for the public recognition of Islam have often been perceived as a threat This volume explores current interactions between Muslims and the more or less secularized public spaces of several European states assessing the challenges such interactions imply for both Muslims and the societies in which they now live Divided into three parts it examines the impact of State Church relations Islamophobia and the war on terrorism evaluates the engagement of Muslim leaders with the State and civil society and reflects on both individual and collective transformations of Muslim religiosity Islam and Political-Cultural Europe Dr David M Kirkham, Professor Tore Lindholm, Professor W Cole Durham Jr., 2013-01-28 Islam and Political Cultural Europe identifies the sometimes confusing and often contentious new challenges that arise in daily life and institutions as Islam settles deeper into Europe Critiquing past and recent assimilation efforts in the fields of education finance and security the contributors offer prospective solutions to diverse contemporary problems Exploring the interactions of Muslim Christian and secular cultures in the context of highly pluralized contemporary European societies this book offers a valuable tool for those within and outside Europe seeking to understand the far reaching implications of combining cultures the struggles of the Muslim Christian secular transition and the progress which the future promises Books in Print, 1991 Making Sense of the Secular Ranjan Ghosh, 2013-01-04 This book offers a wide range of critical perspectives on how secularism unfolds and has been made sense of across Europe and Asia The book evaluates secularism as it exists today its formations and discontents within contemporary discourses of power terror religion and cosmopolitanism and the focus on these two continents gives critical attention to recent political and cultural developments where secularism and multiculturalism have impinged in deeply problematical ways raising bristling ideological debates within the functioning of modern state bureaucracies Examining issues as controversial as the state of Islam in Europe and China s encounters with religion secularism and modernization provides incisive and broader perspectives on how we negotiate secularism within the contemporary threats of terrorism and other forms of fundamentalism and state politics However amidst the discussions of various versions of secularism in different countries and cultural contexts this book also raises several other issues relevant to the antitheocratic and theocratic alike such as Is secularism merely a nonreligious establishment Is secularism a kind of cultural war How is it related to terror The book at once makes sense of secularism across cultural religious and national borders and puts several relevant issues on the anvil for further investigations and understanding
