Evangelization Evangelization:

From Maintenance to Mission Robert S. Rivers, 2005 Evangelization contrary to what many people believe is not just a Protestant concern in fact writes Robert Rivers it is Catholic to the core In this practical approachable work he suggests that the Catholic parish is a wonderful setting to carry out the evangelizing work of the church He makes the case that evangelization holds the key to the future of the church because it was in fact the centerpiece of post Vatican Council reform Drawing from the USCCB document Go and Make Disciples which offers a comprehensive plan and strategy for evangelization he explores ways to challenge us to become Catholic evangelizers And he proposes ways to move from maintenance to mission oriented parishes My purpose affirms the author is to try to place before the reader a compelling vision of Catholic evangelization and share some strategic thinking that might enable us to implement the great vision to which we have been called He attains that goal convincingly practically and hopefully

New Evangelization Leonardo Boff, 2006-02-03 At the 500th anniversary of the conquest of the Americas Leonardo Boff offers a telling assessment of the impact and future prospects of Christianity The anniversary has prompted intense soul searching especially in Latin America While church conservatives have called triumphalistically for a new evangelization of the continent others remembering the ongoing toll among native peoples blacks and the poor have called on the church to free itself from vestiges of its colonial past In New Evangelization Boff cuts to the heart of tensions in the church today In his first extensive treatment of Christian mission from a liberation theology perspective he deals with such topics as inculturation and the trinitarian basis of mission He offers an extensive reflection on the figure of the Virgin of Guadalupe as model of a new liberating evangelization The gospel arrived in the Americas under the sign of domination Boff argues that a new evangelization rooted in the culture of the oppressed must occur under the sign of liberation

The Evangelization of the World: Jacques A. Blocher, Jacques Blandinier, 2012-12-06 Written in an engaging style and intended largely for a lay audience The Evangelization of the World tells the remarkable story of how Christianity grew from an insignificant Jewish sect in the first century until by the beginning of the twenty first century it had become the world's first truly global religion The book is careful to explain historical context and mission theory but the foci of the narrative are the great personalities of mission the Apostle Paul St Martin of Tours St Patrick St Francis Xavier John Eliot Count Von Zinzendorf William Carey Robert Morrison David Livingstone Mary Slessor Albert Schweitzer and many others who make this account of the expansion of the church a fascinating and often dramatic tale In addition the book does not neglect the great mission conferences of the twentieth century nor does it avoid the controversial aspects of mission that in many instances continue to vex the movement today

Costas, 2002-04-22 This book approaches the topic of contextual evangelization from the standpoint of the poor the powerless and the oppressed It is as Orlando Costas explains written against the backdrop of the radical evangelical tradition in dialogue with other streams of the larger ecumenical church Costas begins by exploring the biblical roots of contextual evangelization focusing on two models The Old Testament model is illustrated by believers like Esther who in her heroic liberation of her people in politically difficult circumstances showed us how to come to the aid of those who live on the margins of society The New Testament model is illustrated first and foremost by Christ who showed us how to minister to the marginalized by operating from the Galilean periphery On what does one base contextual evangelization On the Trinity which Costas defines as community the foundation for evangelization as a communal event The substance of evangelization is the apostolic message of the cross which announces God's gift of life through the suffering and death of Christ If we believe that message we look forward to life in God's kingdom even as we work and pray for justice and peace Costas accordingly views conversion not as a single event but rather as a continual transformative process that involves a passage from self absorption to active communal commitment Costas's creative sound blend of evangelical commitment and enlightened social thinking recommends this book to well informed laypeople as well as pastors theologians and scholars      Evangelization Homily Hints Richard W. Wright, 2014-07-02 The Catholic Church is in the midst of a worldwide effort to engage its members in evangelization and welcome home those who have left the Church Yet the meaning of evangelization is unclear to many people what is it and how is it part of my life and my faith Jesus the Evangelist is a transformative guide to becoming a better disciple through studying the words of Jesus Using specific and concrete examples from Scripture the book focuses on the life of Jesus and on the ways he evangelized among his disciples and followers It defines for Catholics what evangelization is while addressing how individuals can evangelize in their everyday lives and how parishes can evangelize through the examples Jesus gave us Pope Benedict XVI said The missionary task is not to bring about revolution in the world but to transfigure it drawing power from Jesus Christ who convokes us at the table of his Word and Eucharist This book will guide the reader into active discipleship providing a practical application of both Scripture and Church teaching to the process of evangelization      Catholic Evangelization Today Kenneth Boyack, 1987      Disciples Called to Witness Committee on Evangelization and Catechesis, 2013-01-20 This statement by

In The Urgency of the New Evangelization: Answering the Call, Ralph Martin explains, "It's not just a churchy buzzword. It's not just for priests and missionaries to carry out. YOU and every individual Catholic play a role. It is literally a matter of life or death for everyone in your life. And it's not as hard as you think."

How to Share Your Faith with Anyone Terry Barber, 2013-08-30. Recent popes have challenged all Catholics to participate in the New Evangelization. But most Catholics feel ill-equipped to take up the challenge. Terry Barber, founder of St. Joseph Communications, has written a practical guide that takes much of the pain and uncertainty out of sharing one's faith. Based on Barber's decades of personal experience as an effective evangelist and masterful communicator, and drawing on the perceptions, examples, and lessons of other great evangelists and apologists, How to Share Your Faith with Anyone informs, entertains, and inspires, would be as well as seasoned evangelists and teachers. Barber uses clear examples and insightful stories to explain such topics as: What evangelization is; Why Catholics often don't evangelize; Preparing to be an evangelist; The eight laws of effectively sharing the faith with anyone; Jesus, the perfect Evangelizer; The heart of evangelization; How to share your personal testimony. Barber explains how to bring people to Christ and to his Church without compromise or conflict. This is a superb, easy-to-follow playbook for the New Evangelization.

Motown Evangelization John C. Cavadini, Donald Wallenfang, 2022-07-21. What happens when the rubber meets the road for Catholic evangelization? Motown evangelization is an evangelization with wheels, an evangelization on the go, an evangelization with soul. Featuring contributions by several of the leading scholars on Catholic evangelization in the twenty-first century, Motown Evangelization: Sharing the Gospel of Jesus in a Detroit Style invites the reader to contemplate the meaning of the New Evangelization within the disorienting context of the postmodern and post-pandemic world of today. Numerous central themes are treated throughout the book's potent chapters: the charity of Christ, the urgency of evangelization, redemptive suffering liturgical sacrifice the Black Catholic experience parish life the communion of saints contemplative prayer and practical suggestions for sharing the gospel of Jesus with friends and strangers alike Tracing the contours of evangelization as at once merciful urgent sacrificial diverse and sanctifying this book opens to the world with hope and healing While oftentimes evangelization can stagnate in wishful thinking with little follow through Motown Evangelization encourages the reader to press on toward the finish line of faith wherein the end is the beginning and the beginning is the end It is because of the paradoxical twists that flood the life and teachings of Jesus that evangelization is ever old and ever new Motown Evangelization will help to empower its reader to share the gospel of Jesus with renewed vigor and vitality     Thoughts on Evangelization Thomas Menampampil, 1997
