Kuhn,Stefan Küchemann,Knut Neumann, Martina Rau,2025-02-17 In the past ten years applications of generative artificial intelligence GAI have found rapidly growing use in medicine science and daily life Large language models LLMs opened up new avenues in particular for education LLMs have been used to create interactive educational content for students stimulate their curiosity generate code explanations and develop assessment questions Additionally LLMs been applied for language practice anxiety alleviation and feedback provision In higher education LLMs have shown potential for assisting in medical exam preparation and clinical decision making In school education LLMs can help teachers with automated evaluation of student responses and respective adaptive feedback More recently LLM based applications such as chatGPT have been used to generate teaching materials or assessment tasks across different subjects The fields understanding of the effects of the use of LLM based applications in classroom teaching however is still in its infancy GAI tools may help solving a range of tasks in education in particular with respect to teachers and students and teachers efforts to generate content However it is critical that teachers and students do not overly rely on GAI generated solutions but instead critically assess each solution Students should furthermore not use GAI tools to avoid investing relevant mental effort to create mental models or more broadly build up competencies Generative AI in Education Ilaria Torre,Diego Zapata-Rivera,Chien-Sing Lee,Antonio Sarasa-Cabezuelo, Ioana Ghergulescu,Paul Libbrecht,2024-12-24 In the field of education there is a growing interest in the use of Generative Artificial Intelligence to reshape the educational landscape Led by our esteemed Associate Editors Dr Zapata Rivera Prof Torre and Review Editors Profs Lee Sarasa Cabezuelo Libbrecht Dr Ghergulescu this editorial initiative aims to investigate the transformative potential of Generative AI in various aspects of education. By leveraging machine learning models, these intelligent systems extract useful insights from vast amounts of data, making them capable of delivering highly individualized content. They can analyze a learner's proficiency level, learning style, and pace, and then tailor the study material accordingly. Whether a learner prefers visual aids, textual content, or interactive modules, Generative AI can adapt its content generation strategies to meet distinct preferences and learners' needs. This ensures an elevated engagement level and enhanced comprehension, highlighting its potential to transform traditional teaching methodologies.

Rethinking Language Education in the Age of Generative AI Zhongfeng Tian, Chaoran Wang, 2025-05-20

Rethinking Language Education in the Age of Generative AI bridges the gap between theory, research, and practice in AI and language education. Through conceptual pieces, empirical studies, and practical applications, this book provides critical insights and implications for reimagining language education in the age of generative AI. The contributors explore a wide range of issues, reflections, and innovations in AI and language education across diverse contexts, including English as a Second Language (ESL), English as a Foreign Language (EFL), foreign language learning, postsecondary pathways programs for international students, and language teacher education programs. Topics examined include critical AI literacy, GenAI-informed second language teaching and assessment, teacher and student perceptions, tool development for language learning, as well as ethical considerations, policies, and guidelines. The book incorporates interdisciplinary perspectives such as L2 foreign language studies, education, and applied linguistics, as well as global insights from countries like the United States, Canada, South Korea, Thailand, Indonesia, and the Philippines. This book is essential for students and researchers seeking to leverage AI to enhance language teaching and learning in innovative, critical, ethical, and responsible ways.
