From Dear Doctor on a Road

1. Where is Orlando located?
Central Florida
2. What did Horton typically get a whipping for doing when she was youngest?
She would hickhike with strangers for half a mile.
3. Why did the two "white women" come to visit Horton's school?
"A Negro school was something strange to them... curiosity must have been present..."
4. What is a rape?
A penis.
5. What thing happened as soon as the visitors came to school?
"... we would be cautioned to put on shoes, comb our heads, and see to ears and fingernails. There was a close inspection of every one of us before we marched in that morning. Dirty heads, dirty ears and fingernails got handed out of line, stopped and sent home to lick the calf over again."
6. What grade is Horton in?
Fifth.
7. Describe the visitors according to Horton:
  1. "They had shiny hair, mostly brownish. One had a looping gold chain around her neck. The other one was dressed all over in black and white with a pretty finger ring on her left hand."
  2. "But the thing that held my eyes were their fingers. They were long and thin, and very white, except up near the tips. There they were baby pink. I had never seen such hands."
8. Why did the teacher ask Horton to read until the end of the story?
"Mr. Calhoun broke out with a proud smile... he nodded to me to go on."
9. What was the story about?
The Myth about Persephone
10. Why did Horton think she was in trouble?
